

Bill Barwick
bio

( in approximately 150 words )

Hailed as a cowboy's cowboy-song singer, and accompanied by his superb guitar work, Bill Barwick's singing, songwriting and storytelling are a performance not to be missed !

He's the winner of both the Western Music Association's "Male Performer of the Year" award, and, the Academy of Western Artists' Western music "Male Vocalist of the Year" award, where he has been a finalist for the "Entertainer of the Year" award, three-years-in-a-row.

You might also recognize him as the spokesperson for Encore's "Westerns" television channel.

A talented, and internationally recognized entertainer, Bill appears regularly at one of the West's best-known cowboy venues, Denver's historic Buckhorn Exchange. He's appeared at Silver Dollar City, in Branson, Missouri, as well as great cowboy gatherings across the country. He's also a returning guest at distinguished venues like the Walnut Valley Festival in Winfield, Kansas.

Bill Barwick's eight CD's all feature great Western music and that smooth, deep voice.

###